

Casual Physiotherapist at GB Taekwondo

Role Description

This is a non-contract Casual Physiotherapist role with variable hours as required. This role will involve working on-site at the National Taekwondo Centre in Manchester or at international competition, to deliver care and support to athletes in these environments. The Physiotherapist will be responsible for providing physiotherapy services to athletes and conducting assessments to support athlete performance.

- Acute injury management.
- Support the delivery of rehabilitation in collaboration with the GB Taekwondo medical team.
- To maintain all legal and professional qualifications in relation to own profession.
- To communicate effectively with full time staff, players and performance team to support the injury needs of the athletes.
- To utilise the latest clinical, scientific and technical innovations within clinical practice maintaining the highest level of care.
- Provide emergency aid cover for training and competition as required. To maintain up to date sports trauma qualifications to meet the legal requirements for this part of the role.
- Maintain comprehensive medical notes.

What we are looking for

Essential

- Degree in Physiotherapy
- HCPC Registered
- Pitch-side trauma qualification (equivalent to ITMMiF/PHICIS-Level 2 or above)
- Experience in an elite sport environment

Desirable

- Evidence of structured CPD, including postgraduate qualifications.
- MSc in a relevant area (or working towards).

Company Description

GB Taekwondo is at a pivotal moment in its history. After a significant period of international medal success, the team has recognised that what led to these achievements will not lead to success in the future. It is time to pivot, creating new opportunities in the pathway, strengthening the profile and leveraging the value of our high-performance teams and athletes, and their unique contribution to the Olympic and Paralympic family, whilst maintaining our purity of our purpose...to give the nation's best Taekwondo athletes, and future prospects, a fighting chance of success. Through it all GB Taekwondo aspires to set the bar for good governance in the high-performance arena and was winner of the Sporting Equals 'sports organisation of the year' in 2024.

For any queries around this role please email tom.paine@gbtaekwondo.co.uk.

Daily rate £150/per day.